CAMRA in West Cumbria issues awards throughout the year to our premises, recognising continued excellence and meritable achievements. In some cases our pubs go on to compete at county, regional and national level. Many of the premises in this Guide have been recipients of such awards over the years. As an indication we have included details, in the entries, of awards made over the last three years. These are :
POTS - Pub of the Season (awarded quarterly to recognise meritable achievement).
POTY - Pub of the Year (voted by members to be the best pub in the Branch area).
CIPOTY - Cider Pub of the Year (voted by members to be the best cider pub in the Branch area).
COTY - Club of the Year (voted by members to be the best club in the Branch area).
CPOTY - Cumbria Pub of the Year (voted by the members across Cumbria to be the best pub in the county).
CCOTY - Cumbria Club of the Year (voted by the members across Cumbria to be the best club in the county).
GBG - Good Beer Guide entry (selected by the members to be included in this prestigious national CAMRA publication).

CAMRA LOCALP These premises have undertaken to ensure they offer at least one truly locally brewed (no more than 20 miles from the brewery) Real Ale.

FREE A595 Holmrook to Waberthwaite (including Wasdale, Ravenglass & Eskdale) Real Ale Guide CAMRA CAMPAIGN FOR REAL ALE

Boot is a small village in the valley of Eskdale. It grew up with the discovery of iron ore. A mineral railway was built from Ravenglass to service it (latterly the La'al Ratty, which now terminates at Dalegarth). The road continues on and up to the Hardknott and Wrynose Passes. The village of Drigg is set on low-lying land on the coast. The dunes are an SSSI (Site of Special Scientific Interest). It is home to Europe's largest colony of Black Headed Gulls. Eskdale Green is a village in Eskdale and a popular tourist stop (The Green) on the La'al Ratty. Once on a packhorse track, it was the Romans' route to Hardknott Fort. Irton is also nearby and served by Irton Road station on the La'al Ratty. Holmrook is a linear village on the A595, alongside the River Irt. Nether Wasdale (also known as Strands) lies at the southern end of Wastwater, England's deepest lake. The village green has a large maypole, now a listed structure, commemorating the golden jubilee of Queen Victoria. Ravenglass lies at the estuary of three rivers - the Esk, the Mite and the Irt. It was an important naval base for the Romans (Glannaventa). Once iron ore, granite and copper ore were brought to the port by a narrow-gauged mineral railway, since preserved as the La'al Ratty railway. There is now also a second station on the same site for the Coast Line (Carlisle to Barrow). The hamlet of Santon Bridge straddles the River Irt. Its name comes from the Old English, bridge by a sandy farmstead. The nearby sandpit produces silver sand. Seascale is a small attractive seaside resort, enhanced in Victorian times. It has history tracing back to Norse and Roman times. The village of Waberthwaite on the estuary of the River Esk overlooks Muncaster Castle and Ravenglass. Wasdale Head is a hamlet located at the "head" of Wasdale, beyond Wastwater. This Guide has been produced by members of the West Cumbria Branch of CAMRA (The Campaign for Real Ale) to promote the excellent Real Ale premises that we enjoy in West Cumbria.
